He sighed because the world was cold,
But might have found it otherwise if he had simply gone to work.
And got a little exercise.

Came Out Well.
We are glad to note that Mr. R. L.
Elkin took a number of premiums on his chickens exhibited at the Louisville Poultry Show. Mr. Elkin handles the Black Minorca, and has gained a wide reputation with them.

State Guards.
Adj. Gen'l Collier tells THE RECORD that work of organizing the new Second Kentucky State Guards has been commenced and is progressing nicely.
Roger Williams, of Lexington, will be colonel. The only town in this immediate vicinity booked for a company is Stanford. There is splendid material about our neighboring city and a good company can be raised there.

Rider-Miller.
Mr. C. Rider, of Upton, Ky., and Miss Mae Miller, of Mt. Vernon, both well-known here, were married last week. The wedding was a quiet affair.

A Few Left.
We have a few copies of our Souvenir Edition left which can be had for five cents a piece. We printed fifteen hundred extras and only about fifty copies remains in the office.

Exchange.
Potts Bros have established an exchange at the residence of Mrs.
Cunningham's on Depot street, and will keep on hand flour, meal, shipstuffs, etc; to exchange for wheat. They will erect a large building within the next few weeks.

Preaching at Christian Church.
Prof. Ellett, of Lexington, is preaching every Sunday in the Christian church, and his sermons are highly praised by his congregations. He will continue to fill the pulpit until the first of March, at which time the newly called pastor, Elder Powell, of Florida, will take charge.

No Lecture.
The Y. M. C. A. received a letter Saturday saying it would be impossible for Polk Miller to fill his engagement here. This is a great disappointment, both to the association and the public. The young men are not discouraged over Mr. Miller's failure to come, and now have their line out for several lectures of even more note than he.

Elder Gowen Goue.
Elder George Gowen left Saturday for Orlando, Fla., where he will hold a protracted meeting. He has a number of appointments in that state, and will remain there quite a while. As previously stated, he will devote his entire time to evangelical work all over the United States. THE RE-CORD wishes Mr. Gowen all happiness and good fortune in his undertaking.

Will Run Rockcastle.
Mr. Herbert Hommel, formerly of this city, was over from Danville this week, and told us he had, with Mr. T.
R. Morgan, rented Rockcastle Springs for the coming season, and would spare neither money or labor to make the place one of the most enjoyable resorts in the south. Mr. Hommel is a popular and industrious young man, and we believe he will make a great success of his venture.

Seventy-Eight.
Capt. Frank J. White, of this office was seventy-eight years old Monday.
He came to the office at 8:30 (much later than usual) and by 2:15 had up two galleys of brevity type, clean proof.
Beside being a fast, clean compositor, Captain is a true gentleman and a devout christian. He is in remarkably good health and many friends hope he will pass many more milestones on life's journey.

Remember This.
A splendid connection is made to Lexington by leaving here at 11:25 noon, going by Junction City and taking the Queen & Crescent you get to Lexington this way shortly after two o'clock. Only twenty-five minutes wait at Junction City, which insures connection. Coming from Lexington, take the 8:30 p. m., C. & O. train, come to Winchester and catch the L.
& N., which will land you here at midnight.

The Band Reorganizes.
The Lancaster band has awakened from its Rip Van Winkle nap and meets every Tuesday evening. The first meeting in six months was held last week, and rats in great numbers have been seen leaving town. The boys seem determined, however, to get to work and learn to put up decent music. There are not so many men in the band now, but those belonging will practice and learn to play. A band is a good thing to have in a town and frequently comes in mighty good place.

ard Grass and Seed Oats, at

The Y. M. C. A.
As will be seen by our report in another column, the Lancaster Y. M. C.
A., is flourishing. Rev. J. Massee addressed a large crowd at the meeting Sunday afternoon, and the young men seemed very much interested. Rev.
Clarke will give a talk next Sunday at three o'clock. Rev. Faulconer, the president, will be here next week, and tall hustling will be done by all interested, to complete all details and get things in permanent shape.

Attractions Galore.
The Walton Brothers have a splendid lot of attractions booked for Stanford, and our amusement lovers have a good opportunity to witness them.
The Journal says The Nat Reiss Repertoire Co. will be at Walton's Opera House the three last nights of this week. Gov. Taylor, of Tennessee, will lecture on "The Fiddle and the Bow," on the 31st and on Feb. 2nd, the inimitable Polk Miller will hold the boards.
Write to W. P. Walton and have seats secured.

Court Day.
Business in all branches was unusually good Monday, and a big crowd was in town. The farmers said they were getting restless to begin plowing, and many expressed the fear that this important branch of their work would be greatly delayed on account of so much rain. There was a good demand for stock, though prices were not very high. In our farm and stock column will be found the sales made. There was no drunkenness of consequence, the street fakir was conspicuously absent and the day passed quietly.

Glee Club.
The Centre College Glee Club has arranged for an entertainment at the Court House tomorrow, Friday, night.
The club is composed of forty young gentlemen. They have an orchestra of twenty instruments, and will also give a number of vocal solos, duets, and quartettes. Miss Margaret Murphy secured the engagement and tells THE RECORD the club will only retain enough of the receipts to defray its actual expenses. The balance will be given a noted lecturer who will appear here soon. Reserved seats 35cts at McRoberts drug store. General admission 25cts, children 15 cts.

Important Rules.
Post office rules have been posted in a neighboring town as follows: "No letters will be delivered until they have been received. If you don't get a letter or paper on the day you expect it, have the postmaster look through all the boxes. It ought to be there somewhere, and he likes to hunt for it to please you. If your friends don't write, cuss the postmaster. He is to blame. If he tells you there is no mail for you, put a grievous expression and say, "There must be some." He is probably hiding your mail for the pleasure of having you call for it two or three times a day. Ask him to look again.—Ex.

A Bad Error.
A correspondent to the Cincinnati Post sent that paper an account of Mr. Rice Benge arresting the negro thief, John Wallace, and that paper got the names tangled. Mr. Benge was given as a notorious horse thief, and the negro as the arresting officer.
Of course those knowing Mr. Benge knew it was a mistake. There are many of these little telegrams sent to the dailies which are not of sufficient importance to publish in the local paper. Many of them do great injustice to our town, in that they happen in remote parts of the county and the dailies publish them as occurring at Lancaster. The "special telegram" racket is greatly overdone at this point.

Letter from Bro. Hill.

SOMERSET, KY., Jan. 20, 1899.
We greatly enjoy the visits of THE RECORD. We feel greatly indebted to the good people of Garrard county for their many kindnesses while in their midst, and hall with delight the news through your paper. We have been planning to make our friends a visit, and hope to be able to do so in the near future.

The Lord is blessing our labor here.
Have just about completed our improvement on our church edifice, which has given us one of the largest and most comfortable auditoriums in this section of the country. The people of all denominations have been very kind to us. All the churches are getting along nicely,—we pray that the blessings of God may rest upon the CENTRAL RECORD and all of its readers. My wife joins me in kind wishes to all. Yours in the Masters work, F. M. HILL.

Temperance Legion.

The Loyal Temperance Legion was organized Sunday afternoon with thirty-five charter members. The following officers were elected: Superintendent, Miss Sallie Elkin.
Asst. Sup't, "Olin Sweeney.
President, "Bessie Batson.
Vice-Pres't, "Hellen Gill.
Secretary, John Moss.
Treasurer, Ethel West.
Organist, Stella Huston.
Chorister, Corn Ward.
Captain, Chas. W. Young.
1st. Ensign, Traylor West.
2nd. Ensign, Bradley Johnson.
3rd. Ensign, Norma Stone.

Joseph.

The many friends of Messrs. Jacob and Sam Joseph will regret to learn of the death of their mother, which occurred in Cincinnati last week. She had been in bad health for some time.
She was well advanced in age, being in her seventies. The funeral and burial took place in Cincinnati, at which place the husband and father was laid to rest last September. The people of Lancaster and Garrard county sympathize greatly with Jake and Sam, as everyone who knows them holds them in the highest esteem. The beloved parents surely must have been extraordinary good people, judging from the upright, manly and straightforward way Jake and Sam were raised to conduct themselves. These men have been engaged in business here for many years, and never has anyone said anything against them. When a man can mingle in the business world this long and make no enemies, it is the truest sign that he has been trained up in the way in which he should go.

To Marry Wednesday.

Mr. J. Randolph Harris, of this city, will be married next Wednesday to Miss Mary Cash, of Lincoln county.
The ceremony will be performed at two o'clock in the afternoon at the residence of the bride's father, Mr.
J. F. Cash, at Turnersville, about five miles from Stanford, and will be said by Rev. Allen, of the Stanford Christian church. Immediately after the ceremony the couple will return to Lancaster, where a reception will be tendered them at the residence of the groom's father, Mr. E. W. Harris.
Miss Cash has visited Miss Florence Harris, in this city, several times, and made many friends among the young society people. She is a handsome young lady, of charming manners and good disposition. The prospective groom was born and raised in Lancaster and numbers his friends by the score. He is a printer by profession, and, having worked on THE RECORD for several years, we can testify as to his ability, and character for sobriety and uprightness. We extend in advance hearty congratulations to the handsome young couple.

Skating tonight.

Everybody is going to the Rink tonight.
Don't miss the Rink. New skates, good order and a pleasant evening.

Young Men.

Remember the business meeting of the Y. M. C. A., at Odd Fellows Hall tonight. Can't you be there?

Beddow Stepping High.

Ed Morrow is about the happiest fellow in these United States. A ten pound boy has put in his appearance to keep "the old man" up at night.
"Beddow" says he is every inch a democrat and yells for free silver from six
p. m. to six a. m., daily.

GETTING IN SHAPE.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting Largely Attended and Roll of Members Made.

The meeting of the Y. M. C. A., Thursday night, was largely attended and much enthusiasm manifested.
President K. F. Postle presided, and the dignified, able manner in which he handles the gavel was much complimented by the young men present.
Notice of tonight's meeting appears elsewhere in this issue. Read it and go. We again urge the country boys to come in and join as charter members. We could fill every column in THE RECORD with advantages and benefits to be derived from this association, but will only say here to those who want to change their course of life and, at the same time, receive benefits of luxuries seldom found in a country town, come in and enroll your names at once. The following is the paper decided upon and the number of names received to date. (These have come unsolicited):
We, the undersigned, join together to form a Y. M. C. A., in Lancaster, and pledge ourselves to endeavor with all our ability to support and forward the organization and its purposes, and promote the good of the young men of Lancaster mentally, physically and morally.

FRIDAY, January 27, 1909

"A WOMAN mourns her mother-in-law deeply when black is becoming to her," remarks an exchange. There is a great deal more truth than poetry in this assertion. One of the biggest fool customs on the globe is that of dressing in black over the death of a relative. It is worn for a while—a very short while—and then cast aside. What else can one infer but that "We have forgotten you now, the sadness has disappeared, and I will lay aside the doleful garb." The exchange quoted hits the nail on the head in referring to the "becoming" part of the foolishness. There are many who wear it because it is "becoming." God knows, it's hard enough to give up a beloved relative, but to have a lot of woe men around dressed to represent a funeral procession adds a great and decidedly unnecessary heartrending feature which we sincerely hope will soon be abolished altogether. We once heard a man say if people believed firmly in their religion, they would rejoice in the death of a Christian instead of mourning it.

The time is drawing nigh to select candidates for the Legislature, or rather near at hand for men to select themselves as candidates for the place. It is devoutly hoped that the people will put on their studying caps before deciding upon a man to represent Garrard. There will be matters of the gravest importance to come before the next assembly, and none but good men should be elected. This thing of electing Tom, Dick or Harry has proven to be a bad policy, and the people should awake to the importance of the matter and send a man who is well educated and informed on public matters. Any blockhead can warm the seat, but the question is will he know what will be the best to do for the people. Pick out good men, gentlemen, and let Garrard's representative be a leader and not a follower.

THE RICHMOND REGISTER called the attention of ex-Governor McCreary to newspaper references to him in regard to his being appointed one of the commissioners to the Paris Exposition. Gov. McCreary said he regretted that his name had been mentioned in connection with the appointment of commissioners to represent the United States at the Paris International Exposition. While he is grateful to a few overpartial friends, who have suggested his appointment, he is unwilling to get into a struggle for the place and has not been to Washington to see about it and has filed no formal application for the appointment and does not desire to be considered a candidate for the position.

A WASHINGTON special says with the exception of Representative Clardy the Democratic members of the Kentucky delegation saw the President this morning in the interest of Gov. Mitch. Alford, an applicant for one of the Paris Exposition commissions. The first words the President said were: "Where is McCreary?" There seems to be no doubt but that the President wants to appoint Mr. McCreary, and is in hopes the delegation will agree upon him.

Kirk Boone will remove his paper, the Reporter, from Somerset to Monticello, where it will be called the Wayne County Record. This will leave only one paper in Somerset, the Paragon. It is all one paper can do to make a living in any town, and we cannot see why a second one will be wedged in, as any one of experience knows it will be a game of freeze out and one will have to die.

A Washington telegram says: "Representative George M. Davidson left for his home in Stanford Saturday afternoon. Judge Davidson will be in Kentucky for some time on business connected with his contest. He thinks there is no doubt but that he will be seated early in the next congress."

The population of the entire world now breathes easier. Fred Clark has signed a Louisville baseball contract and General John B. Castleman will be honorable discharged as soon as he qualifies as brigadier general. This is startling, but gratifying news to an anxious public.

There is some talk of appointing more army chaplains. If we were called upon to pass in our checks, and there was no one at hand to pray but an army chaplain, we would ask those around what messages they had to send Old Nick.

The fate of those on the yact, Paul Jones, is only another of the thousands of incidents which go to show that people should stay where they belong. We never knew it to fall that one does not regret going where he has no business.

These are dangerous times for the health. Croup, colds and throat troubles lead rapidly to Consumption. A bottle of One Minute Cough Cure used at the right time will preserve life, health and a large amount of money. Pleasant to take; children like it. Storms Drug Store Im MARKESBURY.

Miss Lula Simpson is still suffering with rheumatism.

J. W. Moore bought of C. A. Robinson a sow and pigs for $15.

Mr. Monroe Miller, of Jessamine, and Miss Dora Utton were quietly married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. S. M. Utton, Wednesday at 10 o'clock by Rev. W. M. Kuykendall.

Miss Minnie Johnson, of Marcellus, is visiting friends in this community, this week. Mr. Richard Hackley spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Naylor. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hughes have moved on the Danville pike, near Lancaster. Mrs. Miriam Peters is visiting her brother, Mr. T. I. Herring. Miss Mary Kuykendall, having finished the five months term of school at Shelbyville, returned home Friday. Mrs. Jarrett and children, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. M. G. Aldridge, left for their home in Broadhead, Monday. Mr. John Swope, of Milledgeville, will make his home with his uncle, Mr. J. B. Kemper, the ensuing year. Mrs. Robert Humphrey after a pleasant visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boner, returned to Louisville Monday. Mr. Wm. Parks Jr. wife and little sons left Tuesday for Illinois, where they will make their home in the future. We wish them success in their new home.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only medicine in use that meets all of these requirements. This remedy is famous for its cures of bad colds throughout the United States and in many foreign countries. It has many rivals, but for the speedy and permanent cure of bad colds, stands without a peer and its splendid qualities are everywhere admired and praised. For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Druggist. Im

BRYANTSVILLE.

Mesdames Spilman and Haselden, are on the sick list.

Mr. Rains, an old gentleman of the Mt. Hebron vicinity, is quite sick.

A son of Mart Grimes died on the 23d inst., and was buried at Mt. Olivet.

Rev. Allen will fill his appointment at the Grove Sunday, it being the fifth Sunday.

We are glad to learn that the members of the Methodist church in this place have purchased new pews for the church and will have them in by the next regular appointment.

Miss Baker, of Lexington, is the guest of Miss Minnie Arnold, this week. John Ballard and family, from near your city, visited relatives here Sunday. John Leavelle and daughter, of your city, visited relatives here Sunday. Mrs. Hannah Sweeney is visiting her father, J. W. Poor. Mr. B. F. Jennings and wife will visit relatives in Danville this week.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, Editor of the Menoply Fla. Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe, and its exhausting after effects. Storms Drug Store

PREACHERSVILLE.

J. H. Thompson sold two mule colts Monday for $30.

J. F. Pettus bought fourteen sheep last week at $4 per head.

J. L. Hutchins bought of Jas. Roberts five cattle for $75.

J. C. Fox sold to Fox Bros., of Danville, six mules for $110 each.

James Rogers bought of Bird Mathena, 3 hogs at $2.90 per hundred.

Uncle Flem Cummins, one of our oldest citizens, has been in poor health for the last few days.

The young people has organized a Debating Society, which promises to be very interesting, which meets on Friday night of each week.

John Miller sold a nice horse for $70. John Cummins has accepted a position with the Cleveland Lubricating Oil Co., and will be on the road soon.

Mrs. Martha Grimes, mother of W. P. Grimes, died in Kansas City, Saturday night and was brought back to Stanford, for interment in the Buffalo Cemetery.

John Cress and wife have returned from Brodhead, where they have been for two weeks. J. F. Payne and sister, Miss Kate, were visiting relatives at Rowland, Saturday. J. C. Siler is at home from Jellico, on business. J. F. Cummins and wife, of Stanford, were with home folks Sunday. Wm. Pettus, of Brodhead, was down the hill of the week on a visit.

The Eagle, King of All Birds.

is noted for its keen sight, clear and distinct vision. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, styes, sore eyes of any kind or granulated lids. Sold at 25cts. McRoberts Drug Store.

Two facts are undisputed: Deeply plowed ground contains more water than that which has been made compact by the rains: a thin covering of loose soil, often stirred, protects the soil beneath from evaporation and enables it to retain water much longer than without this much. Usually those who grumble most at a drouth have taken no advantage of this knowledge.

The smallest things may exert the greatest influence. De Witt's Little Early Risers are unequalled for overcoming constipation and liver troubles. Small pill, best pill, safe pill. Storms Drug Store.

When you have a bad Cold.

You want the best medicine that can be obtained, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

You want a remedy that will not only give quick relief but effect a permanent cure.

You want a remedy that will relieve the lungs and keep expectoration easy.

You want a remedy that will counteract any tendency toward pneumonia.

You want a remedy that is pleasant and safe to take.

BUCKEYE.

Our village is kept well stocked with drummers.

Joseph Simpson sold to Jas. Prather, of Madison, six calves at $100.

Mesdames Rufus Blakeman and Harrison Ray, are on the sick list.

Reather Ray had a cow to die last week from eating sugar cane tops.

Allen Teater bought the Malinda Ward farm of twenty acres, on Montgomery branch, paying $11 per acre.

Messrs. Robt. Teater and Tom Ray, of Madison, passed through here Monday, with 14 cattle bought at Lancaster court, paying $23 and $22 per head.

Herod Ray lost a hog several weeks ago, and had given it up as gone, but it came in a few days since, minus both ears, which gave it a very odd look, but it had a wonderfully increased hogish appetite.

Miss Cates, of Spoonville, was with Mrs. John Land, last week. Miss Lelia Hendren, of Madison, visited Miss Hattie Jones last week. Raymond Ray went to Richmond and Kirksville, last week to visit relatives.

"I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to all who suffer from pains in the stomach," says Mr. Milt McKinley, editor of the Rawson (Ohio) Herald. "Until I used this remedy it was at times, impossible for me to be in my office, owing to attacks lasting from one to two days. By taking it as soon as the first symptoms of the attack are felt, I no longer suffer this unpleasant sickness." For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Druggist. Im Goosey Headed Advertising.

Some of the business men of Georgetown have peculiar notions about advertising and some of them, for reasons which it would puzzle a philosopher to understand, would rather give their money to a stranger than to one of their own people, when by paying it to the latter, a part, if not all of it, would come back to them. Here is a case in point: A few weeks ago a stranger came into town soliciting advertisements to be printed on a card to be tacked up on the doors of the rooms of a hotel. He soon filled his card with customers, each one paying him probably $3 for the service. The Times office printed the cards. Here is the result: The Times got $2.50 for its work, the stranger got not less than $2.50 clear of all expenses for less than a day's soliciting, (had the Times tried, it couldn't have secured as many advertisers in a month) and the advertisers got—nothing. Had they stopped to think about it they would have known that people who come to Georgetown to buy goods do not stop over night at the hotels; if they did, they wouldn't read the cards, but would ask the hotel clerks the best places to buy. The stranger will probably never be in Georgetown again. He has no interest in the town, nor in any of its people. The neat little sum he took away with him will never find its way back. Another significant fact in this connection is that some of the stranger's patrons never spend a cent with any Georgetown paper for advertising. — Georgetown Times.

GOOD FRUIT YEAR.

Good Letter from Mr. Hillenmeyer Printed by Danville Advocate.

LEXINGTON, KY., Jan. 18.—[In so far as we may now judge, there is no reason why the fruit crop of 1899 may not be remembered as one of the most abundant at the close of the century. Its last decade has indeed been a barren one. Either by intense or untimely cold, by blighting rain or withering drouth, our orchards and berry plantings have failed to yield their wonted returns. But it is a long road that has no turning. The decade of '50 had but two years of abundance, but the one succeeding was the overflowing horn of plenty.]

Many factors enter into the making of great fruit crops. One of the most important of these is the character of the preceding summer, and that of 1898, by reason of its heat and humidity, favored the development of fruit-buds of perfect vitality. Nothing has thus far injured these. There was nearly a perfect failure of the tree fruits last year, and our orchards, so to say, are bubbling over with the unexpended energies of enforced rest. The bush fruits never promised better.

The maximum of cold is always passed by mid-January, and we are pretty certain not to be injured by winter's frost. What untimely or blighting circumstances may nip our hope later on can of course not be determined. The many saturating rains of last summer and fall depleted the number of injurious insects, and from the ravages of these we are comparatively safe. But these same conditions favored that low form of life that mingles the blushing cheek of apple and peach with disgusting blotches of scab and blight. These reflections are equally true of our grass and grain fields, affecting equally the wider interests of our general agriculture.

H. F. HILLENMEYER.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Shepherd, Publisher, Agricultural Journal and advertiser, Eldon, Mo., says: "No one will be disappointed in using One Minute Cough Cure for La Grippe." Pleasant to take, quick to act.

Miserable.

The roads in the county are in miserable condition and travel is greatly impeded. In some places the mud is almost up to the hubs. The almost continual rains during the fall and winter are the cause of this trouble, to a great extent. The water washed the gravel and "packing" away, and as nothing but dirt was left, of course the wheels soon churned it into soft mud. It will take a big pile of money to get the roads in shape when the weather does open up.

The horrible news comes from Kansas that a young man climbed a corn stalk recently to see how the ears were getting along, and now the corn is growing up faster than he can climb down. Three men have undertaken to cut down, but owing to rapid growth it is feared that they will not succeed in time to prevent the young man's starvation. He is subsisting on raw corn and has already thrown down four bushels of cobs, and it is now thought that his supply is almost exhausted. When the men began the attempt of cutting down the stalk, they were able to converse with the young man by means of a speaking trumpet and could see him plainly with a pair of field glasses. Now, however, although he is climbing down ward to the best of his ability, he has disappeared from view in the skies, and the only evidence that he is still on the stalk is the occasional falling of a cob from above which usually penetrates the earth about eight feet.—Exchange.

Short History Of Spanish War

Four centuries of decadence and maladministration had left Spain nearly shorn of possession on Western shores. Cuba, goaded to desperation by accumulated wrongs and inspired toward selfassertion by the illustrious example of the United States, had struck repeatedly for liberty. In February, 1895 began the insurrection, that in due time, won her freedom. The unchivalrous warfare prosecuted by Spain in Cuba culminated in a policy of reconcentration, under which the inhabitants were herded in the fortified towns, without adequate provision, resulting in shocking inhumanities and wholesale death. Outraged public sentiment in the United States at length began to act. President McKinley decreed that a remedy be found, and appealed to the people for aid for starving Cubans. Relief poured in, but was resented by proud, sovereign Spain. Riots ensued. The battleship Maine was sent to Havana to protect American interest. Her destruction, with great loss of life from an external explosion evidently not accidental, led to open rupture between Spain and the United States. Congress appropriated $50,000,000 for national defense, and unprecedented war preparations went on. The United States sent its ultimatum demanding that Spain withdraw from Cuba which unheeded, brought on war in fact April 21 1898. War considerations hastened the annexation of the Hawaiian Island to the United States. Spain's entire fleet in the East was annihilated at Manila by Dewey's squadron; Shafter's army, in a bloody campaign, forced Santiago to evacuate; Sampson's fleet destroyed Cervera's, attempting to escape from Santiago harbor; and the fight was pushed into Porto Rico. Spain sued for peace, a protocol was signed August 12, and a commission met at Paris to conclude the terms of peace. The United States by this war vindicated liberty, earned outpost for itself in Atlantic and Pacific, cemented factions at home and forced the respect of nations abroad.—Ex.

"Don't Tell Them Where You Found Me."

The above is the name of a new song issued on the following incident: The Rev. Thos. Delaney, when Chaplain of a large State Penitentiary, while passing through the Hospital Ward was called to the bedside of a dying convict. The last words of this unfortunate youth were: "Father, I see you do not know me, but you know me well and my family, I will die to-night." I prepared his soul's exit into eternity and whilst his hands were clasped in mine his last request was made: "In my dying moment promise me what I will ask." I here gave him my word; he then revealed his parentage who thought him dead. "Now give me your word that you will send my body home, but don't tell them where you found me." I sent the body home to another State, but they never knew where I found him. THE GROENE MUSIC PUBLISHING CO., 32 E. Fifth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, will send the above song to any address for 20 cents in silver or stamps, regular price 50 cents.
